The cast iron candle holders by designer Robert Welch, 1929-2000.
(Update November 2020)

Because of the updates: don't forget to look regularly on www.20century.eu for the latest news.

In the 1960's Robert Welch designed 9 different candle holders in cast iron. Most famous are the Hobart candle holders, available in the sizes 3½, 5½ and 7½ inch. They have the same, rough finish we know of the candle holders by Jens Quistgaard, black enamel with a sandy texture. Some of these holders were also available in the enamel colours blue and orange. In the new range you will find the medium and high holder in white too.

The middle and large Hobart holders are still available!

In the 1990's he was inspired by old pieces of wood he found on the beaches and designed a range of 3 cast iron candle holders, named Sea Drift candle holders.
